

Product Vision

Target Group

General users who want to automate their homes by making them “smart”.

Needs

The product improves the energy efficiency of one’s home improving his/hers quality of life.

Product

The product consists of sensors that are read and actuators that are automatically or manually controlled by the user.

Goals

It will make the company known and it will make the company profitable as anyone would benefit from this system.

Vision Statement

For users who want to automatically control their homes, the “Smart Home FEUP System XPTO” is a HAS that improves the commodity and efficiency of their living space.